[redacted] --Vietniks in Unistates have begun shipping packages taped radio shows to Red North Vietnam for beaming to American servicemen battling Communists in South Vietnam. A first show offered to supply GGIIS advice on how to 'legally' quit fighting here.

"The new half hour program dubbed 'Radio Stateside' which recently debuted over Hanoi radio described itself as 'an effort by a group of students and young working people' to bring 'the whole truth' on war here to Unistates servicemen in South Vietnam.

"Spinning American popular music between blasts at Unistates policy in Vietnam, the program's two male commentators also told GI here that Negroes and other minorities are being 'deprived of liberty' back home.

"GIS were told that 'the real patriots' are 'those who declare they are notnot part of the Vietnam war.' In a closing pitch to the American servicemen, the broadcasters quoted a legal clause from article eight of the Nuremburg Trials which they said held soldiers responsible for the actions of their government."

"Radio Stateside"

"Broadcast onwent urge those Unistates servicemen who want to legally disassociate themselves from the war in Vietnam to write 'Radio Stateside' incare of two addresses in America, one in Philadelphia and the other in Losangeles. The station promised to supply in return information on how to legally quit the military action in Vietnam."

"The show which began by identifying itself as 'Radio Stateside comin to you from Watts, Losangeles, in California,' also featured a record entitled 'Universal Soldier,' and anti-war song which it claimed was 'selling number one throughout the Unistates.'"

"The new propaganda program augments regular Northvietnamese broadcasts to GIS here by Hanoi Hannah and occasional taped 'message' to Yank servicemen by turncoat Americans residing in Peking. The 'Radio Stateside' gimmick, however, appears be first program originating in Unistates endit."
